

The innovative language school LEARNING EVENTS is looking for

English Native Speakers

Job description:

- Teach English to participants (typically kids aged 10 to 15)
- Organise, supervise and participate in leisure activities (sports, culture, nature, etc.)
- Organisational matters

Applicants must fulfil the following criteria:

- English mother tongue
- Teaching experience
- Experience in working with kids
- EU citizen or work-permit for Austria

You will benefit from working with us because:

- We provide training to the trainers (adventure education)
- Being a small company, we offer a friendly and personal atmosphere
- In case the cooperation is successful, we might provide you with jobs in the future

Next Dates:

- Thursdays in summer (August 11 and 25)
- September 11 – 16, 2011
- October: 3 – 4 days

Pay: 50 – 100 euros per day (depending on hours / day, tasks, education and experience of candidate)

During language camps with overnight stays outside Vienna, the trainers are provided with full board and accommodation.

Please send your CV with photo (in English or German) via email to info@learningevents.at. All applicants fulfilling the "must criteria" will receive an answer. Candidates might be invited to participate in a workshop and interviews in Vienna.
